THE DANUBIAN LANDS BETWEEN THE BLACK, AEGEAN AND ADRIATIC SEAS (7TH CENTURY BC-10TH CENTURY AD)

Edited by
Gocha R. Tsetskhladze
Alexandru Avram
James Hargrave

ARCHAEOPRESS ARCHAEOLOGY
The Danubian Lands between the Black, Aegean and Adriatic Seas
(7th Century BC-10th Century AD)

Proceedings of the Fifth International Congress on Black Sea Antiquities
(Belgrade – 17-21 September 2013)

Edited by
Gocha R. Tsetskhladze
Alexandru Avram
James Hargrave

Congress Logo/Cover Page Illustration:

There are several items supposedly from Olbia on the Black Sea kept in the National Museum in Belgrade. This collection was donated by K. Milosavljevic in the early 20th century. A pyxis from it (Inv. no. 607/1) has been chosen as the logo of the Congress to demonstrate Serbia’s connection with Black Sea antiquities (L.B. Popovic, Collection of Greek Antiquities, National Museum Belgrade, Belgrade 1994, pp. 73-74, 263).
Table of Contents

Principal Editor’s Preface ................................................................. vi
Gocha R. Tsetskhladze

Message from the President of the Congress ........................... vii
Sir John Boardman

Welcome by the Secretary-General ........................................... viii
Gocha R. Tsetskhladze

List of Illustrations and Tables ................................................. ix
List of Abbreviations ................................................................. xvii

Opening Lecture
Black Sea cultures and peoples ............................................... 3
Miroslava Mirković

Section 1: The Black Sea Greek Colonies and their Relationship with the Hinterland
Greeks, locals and others around the Black Sea and its hinterland: recent developments .............. 11
Gocha R. Tsetskhladze

Feasting and diplomacy in colonial behaviour in the northern Black Sea ............................. 41
Ivy Faulkner

The Black Sea area in Xenophon’s Anabasis ..................................... 47
Luigi Gallo

Hegemony and political instability in the Black Sea and Hellespont after the Theban expedition to Byzantium in 364 BC ............................................. 51
José Vela Tejada

Femmes et pouvoir chez les peuples des steppes eurasiatiques ........................................ 57
Marta Oller

The Bosporus after the Spartocid kings .......................................... 61
Stefania Galloutta

Leuce Island as a part of the Pontic contact zone: constructing a sacred Topos ..................... 65
Ruja Popova

Sinope and Colchis: colonisation, or a Greek population in ’Poleis Barbaron’? ..................... 71
Jan G. de Boer

Greek colonies and the southern Black Sea hinterland: looking closer into a long, complex and multidimensional relationship ............................................ 79
Manolis Manoledakis

Phrygia and the southern Black Sea littoral ........................................................................ 89
Maya Vassileva
Perception and the political approach to foreigners of the West Pontic Greek colonies during the Hellenistic period ................................................................. 95
Alina Dimitrova

The Greek colonisation of Abkhazia in the light of new archaeological discoveries: the palaeogeographic, ecological and demographic situation in Sukhum Bay ....................... 99
Alik Gabelia

New data on the dynamics of relations between Greeks and Barbarians at the mouth of the Tanais river in the final stage of Scythian history (5th-3rd centuries BC) .......................... 103
Viktor P. Kopylov

Greek colonisation of the European Bosporus .................................................................. 107
Viktor Zinko and Elena Zinko

The Cimmerians: their origins, movements and their difficulties ...................................... 117
Ioannis K. Xydopoulos

Section 2: The Danube and the Black Sea Region
Verbindung zwischen dem Schwarzen Meer und der Adriatik durch Ozean und/oder Donau im Weltbild der archaischen Griechen ................................................... 125
Alexander V. Podossinov

Between the Euxine and the Adriatic Seas: ancient representations of the Ister (Danube) and the Haemus (Balkan Mountains) as frames of modern south-eastern Europe ................................................................. 131
Anca Dan

Cultural Transfers and artistic exchanges between the Adriatic and Black seas, 4th century BC ............................................................................................... 151
Cecilia D’Ercole

Celts in the Black Sea area ............................................................................................. 157
Jan Bouzek

Antonia Tryphaina im östlichen dynastischen Netzwerk .................................................. 167
Victor Cojocaru

Wine for the Avar elite? Amphorae from Avar period burials in the Carpathian Basin ...... 173
Gergely Csiky and Piroska Magyar-Hárshegyi

Sur quelques inscriptions possiblement tomitaines .......................................................... 181
Alexandru Avram

The ecclesiastic network of the regions on the western and northern shores of the Black Sea in late antiquity ................................................................. 187
Dan Ruscu

Religion and society on the western Pontic shore ................................................................ 195
Ligia Ruscu

L’Europe du sud-est chez les géographes de l’époque impériale: continuités et ruptures ......................................................................................................... 203
Mattia Vitelli Casezza

Colonisation in the urban and rural milieu of Noviodunum (Moesia Inferior) ............... 211
Lucreţiu Mihailescu-Bîrliba

Aqüileian families through Pannonia and Upper Moesia .............................................. 217
Leonardo Gregoratti
The city of Tomi and the Roman army – epigraphic evidence ........................................... 221
Snežana FERJANČIĆ

The imperial city of Justiniana Prima as a paradigm of Constantinopolitan influence in the Central Balkans ....................................................................................... 227
Olga ŠPEHAR

Empreintes et originaux: les monnaies avec monogramme BAE ..................................... 233
Pascal BURGUNDER

The Roman harbour of Ariminum and its connections with the Aegean and the Black Sea ............................................................................................................. 241
Federico UGOLINI

L’istros dans l’horizon géographique ancien: un aperçu historique sur les traditions et les connaissances géographiques concernant son bassin ......................... 247
Immacolata BALENA

De la mer Égée jusqu’aux Carpates: la route du vin de Rhodes vers la Dacie ............... 253
Dragoș MĂNDESCU

Section 3: Roman and Byzantine Limes. Varia

Women at the verge: Roman and Byzantine women on the Danubian Limes .................. 261
Il AKKAD and Milena JOKSIMOVIĆ

Funerary images of women in tomb frescos of the Late Antique and Early Byzantine period from the Central Balkans ................................................................. 267
Jelena ANDELKOVIĆ GRAŠAR

Regarding the fall of the Danubian limes with special reference to Scythia Minor in the 7th century ......................................................................................... 275
Gabriel CUSTUREA and Gabriel MIRCEA TALMAȚCHI

Some East Pontic amphorae of Roman and Early Byzantine times ................................. 281
Andrei OPAȚIȚ

Some thoughts about Seleucid Thrace in the 3rd century BC ........................................... 291
Adrian George DUMITRU

Eastern crimea in the 10th-12th centuries AD: similarities and differences .................... 297
Vadim V. MAIKO

Les Romains en mer Noire: depuis les villes greques au IIe siècle après J.-C. ............. 313
Livio ZERBINI

Castles made of sand? Balkan Latin from Petar Skok to J.N. Adams .............................. 321
Vojin NEDELJKOVIĆ

Ancient coins on Bulgarian lands (1st century BC-5th century AD): the Archetype of Dominance/Power–God/Emperor/King on a Throne ................................. 327
Sasha LOZANOVA

Ceramics from the Danubian provinces on sites of the Chernyakhov-Sîntana de Mureș culture ................................................................................................. 335
Boris MAGOMEDOV

Section 4: New Excavations and Projects

Thracia Pontica: Apollonia, Mesambria et al. A comparative archaeometrical approach ..................................................................................................................... 353
Pierre DUPONT
Old digs, new data: archaeological topography of the southern part of the Acropolis of Istros during the Greek period (the Basilica Pârvan sector) .................................................. 361
Valentin-Victor BOTTEZ

Stratégies coloniales et réseaux d’occupation spatiale gètes sur le littoral de la Dobroudja du Nord: les acquis du Programme ANR Pont-Euxin.............................. 369
Alexandre BARALIS et Vasilica LUNGU

Rock-cut monuments in Thrace and Phrygia: new perspectives from the Gluhite Kamani project ........................................................................................................ 385
Lynn E. ROLLER

Deultum-Debeltos: archaeological excavation of the street spaces and structures, 2004-13 ........................................................................................................... 393
Hristo PRESHLENOV

The civic centre of Archaic Borysthenes: a new approach to localisation...................... 401
Dmitry CHISTOV

Changes in the structure of faunal remains at the settlement on Berezan island (northern Black Sea) during its existence................................................................. 413
Aleksei KASPAROV

Using, reusing and repairing pottery: the example of two small Bosporan centres – Tanais and Tyritake (everyday life, economic status, wealth and the resourcefulness of the population) ........................................................................ 421
Marcin MATERA

Excavation of Ash Hill 2 in Myrmekion ........................................................................ 429
Alexander M. BUTYAGIN

Lesale, an unknown centre in western Colchis............................................................... 435
Annegret PLONTKE LÜNING

Recent discoveries at Tios and its territory .................................................................... 439
Sümer ATASOY and Şahin YILDIRIM

The rescue excavation of the Selmanli tumulus in Kastamonu .................................. 443
Şahin YILDIRIM

New findings on the history and archaeology of the Eastern Black Sea Region of Turkey: the excavation of Cıngırt Kayası ................................................................. 451
Ayşe F. EROL

On settlement problems in north-western Anatolia (Zonguldak region) from the 7th century bc to the Roman period ................................................................. 461
Güngör KARAÜĞÜZ

Achaemenid presence at Oluz Höyük, north central Anatolia....................................... 465
Şevket DÖNMEZ

New data about Roman painted pottery discovered at Cioroiu Nou, Dolj county, Romania ................................................................................................. 473
Dorel BONDUC

The cooking devices of Apollonia Pontica (Bulgaria): preliminary study of the specificities of the ceramic assemblage of this Greek colony ........................................... 479
Laurent CLAQUIN

The construction of Marcianopolis: local and imported stone production and the relationship with the Western Pontic colonies during the Principate....................... 489
Zdravko DIMITROV
An architectural complex in the north-western part of the Chersonesian fortress belonging to the Chaika settlement in the north-western Crimea......................................... 493
Tatyana Egorova and Elena Popova

Christian buildings in the fortress of Anacopia................................................................. 503
Suram Sakania

Appendix 1
Programme: Fifth International Congress on Black Sea Antiquities.............................. 510

Appendix 2
Summaries of papers: Fifth International Congress on Black Sea Antiquities............... 516
Contributors/lead authors and contact details (published papers).................................... 559